CABLE FOR THE PACIFIC.

A Beginning Toward a Connection of the Western Coast With the Orient.

FIRST STEP TO HAWAII.

The Senate Authorizes the President to Contract for the Work--Which Will Cost $3,000,000--The First Step Toward Government Telegraph Lines.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—By the decisive vote of 28 to 25, the Senate voted to-day to inaugurate the project of laying a cable from the Pacific coast to Hawaii. An amendment to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was made, giving $500,000 for beginning work on the cable, and authorizing the President to contract for the entire work, estimated to cost $3,000,000. This was the first practical result coming from the intermittent Hawaiian debate, lasting more than a year, and renewed with intensity the last week in connection with the proposed cable. The debate of the last few days has shown that the lines of division were practically the same as those heretofore existing on all issues over Hawaii; the Republican senators urging closer relations by cable and ultimately by annexation; the Democratic senators, as a rule, contending against the cable or other entangling alliances with Hawaii. But this party division had notable exceptions during the day and was emphasized in the final vote, which was as follows:

Yeas—Aldrich, Allison, Burrows, Butler, Call, Carey, Chandler, Clark, Cullom, Davis, Dubois, Frye, Gorman, Hale, Hansborough, Hawley, Higgins, Hill, Hoar, Kyle, Lodge, Manderson, Mitchell, of Oregon; Morgan, Morrill, Peffer, Perkins, Proctor, Platt, Sherman, Squire, Stewart, Teller, Washburn White and Walcott—36.

Nays—Barrows, Blackburn, Brice, Caffery, Cockrell, George, Gray, Harris, Hunton, Lindsay, Jones of Arkansas, McLaurin, Martin, Mitchell of Wisconsin, Murphy, Palmer, Pasco, Pettigrew, Ransom, Roach, Smith, Turpie, Vest, Vilas and Walsh—25.

The pairs were as follows, the first named would have voted for the proposition: Allen and Bates, McMillan and Blanchard, Dolph and Coke, Cameron and Gibson, Shoup and Pugh, Quay and McPherson, Mantle and Voorhees, Gallinger and Mills, Wilson and Gordon, Jones of Nevada, and Daniel, Dixon and Irby; Pritchard and Faulkner.

Mr. Camden said his absence was accidental and he would have voted no if present.

Mr. Power was present and did not vote. Six Democratic senators, Morgan, Gorman Hill, Butler, Call and White voted with the 28 Republican senators, and three Populists, constituting the majority for the cable. One Republican, Mr. Pettigrew, of South Dakota, voted with the 24 Democrats against the cable.

The diplomatic and consular bill was then passed and eulogies on the late Senator Stockbridge, of Michigan, closed the day.

HOUSE.

The House today, in committee of the whole, by a vote of 124 to 59, voted to place their individual clerks on the annual salary roll at the rate of $100 per month. These clerks hitherto received $100 per month during the session of the House.

The annual attempt to strike out the appropriation for the civil service commission was made, but did not assume a serious phase, and was defeated by a vote of 32 to 20.

A joint resolution was passed to extend the time for making income tax returns to April 15.

At the opening of the session, Mr. Van Voorhees, of New York, had read a letter which he had mailed to Mr. Creamer, a member of the British Parliament, replying to the latter's charge that he had treated him discourteously before the foreign affairs committee.

The remainder of the day after 3 o'clock was devoted to eulogies on the late Representative Wright, of Pennsylvania.

A STEAMER AFIRE.

A Rough Experience With Red Hot Decks and Mountainous Seas.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 9.—The British steamer City of Wakefield, Captain Brabyt, from Galveston, July 20, via Newport News, January 29, for Hamburg, with a cargo of cotton oil cake and linseed meal in bags, put in here this morning with fire in the hold and damaged about the decks. The fire was first discovered Monday morning 500 miles southeast of Halifax in No. 2 hold. The decks became red hot. Jets of steam were introduced through the hatch cover and through the stoke hold bulkhead. She was headed for Halifax. The fire gained headway that day, but got under control the next day when the wind, which had been blowing hard from the south, worked around to the northwest and developed hurricane force. Mountainous seas swept fore and aft for forty-eight hours. A deck load of 650 cedar logs broke adrift and did much damage about the deck. The bridge ladder was swept away, her guard rails twisted, her steam pipe guards broken off, and her hatch tarpaulines chafed off. Steward William Henningway was injured by rolling logs. Seas flooded the cabin and forecastle and engineer's berths. The water went down into the hold. Meanwhile the fire spread forward among the cotton. The hurricane continued up to Wednesday night. Thirty tons of coal on the deck was washed off. Communication fore and aft was very dangerous. A seaman named Coil refused duty and incited others to mutiny. He was placed in iron. The carpenter and boatswain were found nearly suffocated in their berths by gas penetrating the forecastle from the burning cotton. The City of Wakefield is docked, but will shortly haul into the stream. She has not yet been opened and steam jets are still playing into her hold.

The Weather Today.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The weather indications for North and South Carolina for today are: Fair and warmer; northwest winds.

THE LA GASCOGNE

Now Seven Days Overdue--With 300 Souls on Board--An Eager Watch Kept.

BOSTON, Feb. 9.—News of the overdue steamer La Gascogne is eagerly sought for from each craft which makes its appearances at this port. The Johnston Line freighter, Akaba, which left Hamburg December 16, is now overdue, and it is suggested that as she would cross the line of the missing steamer, she may have La Gascogne in tow. Other steamers, which are expected here tomorrow, and it is thought may bring news of La Gascogne, are the Kolpino from Hull, of the Sanderson Line; the St. Ronans from London, of the Furness Line; the Sachem from Liverpool, of the Warren Line; the Lochiel from Progresso, Mex., and the Bolivia, of the Johnston Line, from Hamburg.

MAY HAVE DRIFTED.

BERMUDA, Feb. 9.—It has been thought here that the steamship La Gascogne, now overdue at New York, from Havre, might have been driven this way after a breakdown of her machinery and a sharp lookout has been kept for her, but no tidings as yet. A report this afternoon said that nothing had been seen of her and all vessels arriving here reported the same. All the arrivals here report that they encountered very bad weather at sea.

IT MAY BE THE STEAMER.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Feb. 9.—This afternoon Capt. Harding, of Jerry's Point, Capt. Willis of the Willis Sands, and Capt. Remick, of the Rye Beach life saving stations, sighted dense clouds of smoke well off Eastern Duck Island. They later made out a big steamer, heading westward, making heavy work and moving slowly. They watched her until nightfall without being able to make her out, beyond evidently being a foreigner.

OR PERHAPS THIS IS HER.

FIRE ISLAND, N. Y., Feb. 9,—9 p. m.—A steamer is reported 38 miles east of here. She seemed to be going along at the usual speed and should be off Fire Island about 11 p. m. The wind is blowing strongly from the west, and the weather is thick off shore.

INCOMING STEAMERS DIDN'T SEE HER.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—The Red Star line steamer Switzerland, Capt. Dexred, from Antwerp, with ninety passengers, arrived here today. Her officers declared that the storm which they passed was the worst they ever encountered. A good lookout was kept throughout the entire voyage, but nothing was seen of the missing French liner, La Gascogne. The Switzerland was covered with ice. Pilot Bennett, who brought her up, was almost frozen stiff, having been on the bridge forty-eight hours.

THIS GIVES NO HOPE.

SANDY HOOK, Feb. 9.—11:20 P. M.—A steamer is passing from the south She showed no signals. Having made no signals, it is naturally supposed that she is not the Gascogne, as her captain would signal on account of knowing anxiety must exist as to the safety to his vessel and passengers.

Hopes Dashed to Earth.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—10 p. m.—Hopes that the White Star line steamer would bring some news of the overdue French liner La Gascogne, were dashed to earth when the officers of the Teutonic reported that they had neither seen nor heard of the missing ship.

Trains Blocked by Snow.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The high snow drifts have caused frequent blockades on the Pennsylvania lines running into the city and several hundred laborers are at work between here and Alexandria, Va., a stretch of track along five miles of low lands. Between Alexandria and St. Asaph Junction train No. 78, the through southern express, is frozen in fast. It was due here at 11:10 o'clock Thursday night. The first north-bound Florida special to reach here since Thursday, arrived at 8:10 p. m. many hours late. The Sea Board Line train arrived at 4 o'clock this afternoon six hours late. The Florida special, scheduled to leave at 10:47 p. m. Thursday night, left soon after noon today. The Southern train, which left the city at 10:43 last night, was annulled on account of a snow blockade north of Danville.

The Commercial Travellers In It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The President has approved the following acts: To amend section 22 of the interstate commerce act, permitting the issue of 5,000-mile tickets and the carriage of additional baggage (the bill favored by the Commercial Travellers association).

To regulate navigation on the great lakes and connecting rivers; for the relief of Mrs. Katherine Todd Crittenden, widow of Major-General Crittenden; to print additional copies of decisions of the Interior Department relating to public lands and pensions.

Work of the Flames.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Feb. 9. — A Morden special says: D. Kilgore's dry-goods store, G. W. McLaren's drug store, Sparling's grocery store, Forest's jewelry store, Heiman & Co.'s liquor store, and the Commercial hotel have been burned, and desperate efforts are being made to save the remainder of the business section. Losses and origin of the fire are unknown at present.

TICKINGS FROM THE WIRE.

Flashes of News from all Over the World.

Petersburg, Va., Feb. 9.—Ex-Mayor T. J. Jarratt died suddenly last night. He was 78 years old. For many years he was a prominent merchant and for six years, from 1888 to 1894, he was collector of customs at this port.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The United steamship Bennington has arrived at Acapulco, Mexico. Admiral Meade, with the North Atlantic squadron, has sailed from St. Thomas for Santa Cruz. The Monterey has arrived at Mare Island.

Sandy Hook, N. J., Feb. 9.—8:25 P.M.—The Hamburg-American line steamship, Pattria, which passed out quarantine at 5:52 this afternoon, bound for Hamburg, is aground or disabled near Palestine Shoal. She displays the signal lights, "vessel not under control."

A Postmaster Absconds.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Postoffice Department was notified today that the postmaster at Tarpon Springs, Fla., had absconded. The money order books of the office have not been written up since last fall and a considerable shortage is indicated. Postoffice Inspector Tate, of the Chattanooga division, is making an investigation.

One Hundred and Four Years Old.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 9.—Miss Mary McIntire, probably the oldest woman in Georgia, died at the home of the Little Sisters of the Poor today. She was 104 years old, and to a month ago had full possession of her faculties. She came to Savannah seventy-five years ago.

THE HAND OF THE STORM.

Congealing the Waters--Gorging The Rivers--Blocking Navigation--Stopping Trains.

TWO MEN IN THE RIGGING.

Six of Their Companions Lost in the Deep. Desolate Scene in New England. Fruit Trees Killed in the South. A Record of the Work of the Cold Wave.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—New York is practically ice bound. The bay from the narrows to Sandy Hook is almost a solid cake of ice. The upper bay would be as bad were it not that a number of tugs are at work breaking the ice to permit the passage of crafts and small steamers plying in the North and East rivers. Tugs are constantly at work clearing a way for the Staten Island ferry boats.

The tugs were at work all day breaking the ice in the Erie Basin. Two floats of the Lehigh Valley were stalled in the East river for over an hour, and a tug that went to their assistance was also stopped by the ice. The Russian steamer, Regulus, which left Boston Thursday for this city, got stalled at City Island, and four tugs were required to bring her to the Atlantic docks in Brooklyn.

The steamer Salamanaca, from Venezuela to South Amboy, with a cargo of asphalt, was ice-bound off Staten Island and forced to remain there. The ship Frankiston, from China, on her way to Brooklyn, had to be towed to Staten Island, where she anchored for the night.

The Potomac Blocked With Ice.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The intensely cold weather continues here, but today its severity was somewhat modified by the sunshine. The thermometer at the Weather Bureau at 6 o'clock this morning was 6 degrees above zero. The predictions are that the weather will be fair and slightly warmer for the next 24 hours.

Navigation on the Potomac river for about 50 miles down is practically at an end, even for the big steamers that ply between this city and Norfolk, Va. For about fouty miles between Alexandria, Va., and Maryland Point, the ice is gorged in the channel to the height of from 10 to 20 feet. It took the steamer Washington two hours to penetrate the mass going down to Norfolk.

The steamer Norfolk, which arrived this morning, had ten inches of ice on her upper deck, and had a hard time pushing through the gorge.

The running of the steamers Washington and Norfolk will be suspended until the channel opens.

No boats are running in the Chesapeake bay, those from Baltimore having been compelled to stop.

Desolate in New England.

CHATHAM, Mass., Feb. 9.—The coast in the vicinity of this port presented a desolate appearance at sunset to-night. A great mass of ice lines the shores for miles and it is almost impossible to launch a boat. An unknown two-masted schooner anchored near Bishop's light this afternoon, but at 3 o'clock a large body of moving ice went down upon the vessel causing her anchor chains to part. The schooner set signals of distress in the rigging, but the Chatham life-saving station was unable to reach her with a boat on account of the ice. At dark she was drifting helplessly in the direction of Handkerchief shoals.

Roanoke's Worst Spell.

ROANOKE, Va., Feb. 9.—The weather is still very cold here, notwithstanding the mercury went up nearly 25 degrees today. The thermometer now stands 11 above. The south-bound vestibule, Norfolk and Western train, has not passed through Roanoke for forty-eight hours. The street cars began running at noon, having been tied up by snow and the intense cold weather for the past few days. There is considerable damage done throughout the city by water and steam pipes bursting, and the weather has been the severest spell ever experienced in this section of the State.

Stopped Factories at Danville.

DANVILLE, Va., Feb. 8.—The weather has been moderating here since last night. The sun shone brightly to-day and there was a little thawing. There have been no northern mails here since Thursday night. The tobacco business, Danville's leading industry, has been at a stand-still on account of the harsh weather. No leaf tobacco is being marketed and the factories are idle.

Six Men Lost Off Long Island.

EASTPORT, L. I., Feb. 9.—All of the crew of eight of the unknown three-masted schooner ashore near Lone Hill Life-saving station are lost except two men, who are still in the rigging. On account of the high sea running the surf boats of the life-saving crew cannot be launched, and there seems to be no hope for the two men. They had hold of the shot line that had been sent aboard, but were unable to haul it in.

Ferries Ice Bound in Michigan.

LUDINGTON, Mich., Feb. 9.—The tug Thompson and steamer F. & P. M., No. 4, which started out to relieve the imprisoned car ferries of Manistee, were forced to abandon the undertaking owing to heavy ice. Capt. Ackerman, of No. 1, came ashore over the ice at Manistee today. He says the coal supply of his steamer is completely exhausted, but there is enough lumber on board to enable the engineers to keep things warm. Only one boiler is being fired. The steamer is safe and those on board are comfortable.

Fruit Trees Killed in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 9.—Advices from Marshallville, in the heart of the peach belt, are to the effect that the young buds have been killed and that the growers are uneasy about the consequences of the freeze of the crop, though they are not yet known to be serious.

A Fresh Start in New York.

LYONS, N. Y., Feb. 9.—A second blizzard began at 6 o'clock this evening and within a couple of hours it was snowing and blowing harder than at any time since the big storm commenced. Four Central engines are off the tracks in Lyons yards and traffic is at a standstill.

Only Forty Degrees Below.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Not since the great blizzard of 1888 has the Adirondack region been so completely snowed under. Yesterday the railroads abandoned their idea of running trains. The Lake, with three railroads, has been almost entirely cut off from outside communication for almost three days. During the height of the storm the mercury went down to forty below zero, and for five days it was not above the cipher.

Trains Blockaded in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 9.—The post-office here is full of mail matter awaiting despatch. The Baltimore and Lehigh has not had a train since the storm began. The Western Maryland is also blocked. Snow drifts have made the highways and byways impassable, and produce from near-by places is thus kept out of town, sending up prices of all commodities.

Annapolis, the capitol of Maryland, is snow-bound. A report comes from there that several men and horses were frozen to death in attempts to cross the Severn river on the ice.

Cumberland, in the western part of the State, telegraphs that two passenger coaches and nine engines are fast in a snow drift on the West Virginia Central road at Black Oak Bottom. A passenger train which left Cumberland yesterday afternoon for Elkins, became disabled and the passengers were brought back. Four engines sent to extricate the disabled train could not budge, and four more went out this morning and are also stuck fast.

Snow Bound Trains in Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—Three trains are fast in a drift between Ancora and Waterford. The Philadelphia mail train has been lying in a drift at Waterford station since 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An express train from the shore is in the same predicament, and the passengers are being fed by residents of the neighborhood.

THE BOND MESSAGE.

Under Consideration By the Ways and Means Committee--Opposition Rank.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The House ways and means committee took up the President's special bond message at the end of a long session today, and so much difference of opinion made itself manifest immediately, that the business was postponed until 3 o'clock Monday. Mr. Bynum, Democrat, of Indiana, proposed a resolution to amend the act of 1875 to make it authorize the issue of bonds bearing interest at the rate not to exceed 3 per cent and payable in gold coin.

Chairman Wilson proposed a resolution less sweeping in its scope, to apply only to the contemplated issue which was the subject of the message, and to empower the Secretary of the Treasury to make them payable in gold coin.

The Republicans quickly announced their opposition to both plans. Mr. Reed said: "I do not believe in borrowing gold by bonds payable after thirty years, when according to the Secretary of the Treasury we are to have a surplus in the treasury soon."

It was developed by the brief discussion that not only the Republicans, but Messrs. Bryan, Whiting, Wheeler and McMillan, of the Democrats, are opposed to the plan for bonds to be payable by stipulation in gold. Mr. Turner, (Dem. Ga.) made a motion to make the message a special order for the time named, which was carried.

THE VICTORIOUS JAPS.

They Have Sunk Three Chinese Ships and Captured a Stronghold.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The secretary of the navy has received the following from Admiral Carpenter, dated Chee Foo, February 7:

"The Japanese have taken possession of Wei-Hai-Wei today. Three vessels of the Chinese fleet were sunk in the harbor by torpedoes. The Charleston left today for the purpose of assisting distressed persons at Tung Chow.

THE FREEZE IN FLORIDA.

Appalling Results of the Cold--a Loss of Ten Millions of Dollars.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 9.—The freezing weather continues. The mercury was 19 at sunrise this morning and 25 at 11 o'clock. The prediction of the weather bureau is that freezing weather will continue until Sunday night.

The best informed orange grower in Florida, Mr. James A. Harris, of Citra, says that ninety-five per cent. of the crop is killed, and that next year's crop will not reach 100,000 boxes against 5,000,000 boxes last year.

The early vegetable crop, the entire strawberry crop and four-fifths of the pine apple plants are destroyed.

The aggregate loss is conservatively estimated at ten million dollars.

KILLED HIS WIFE.

The Crime of a Jealous Husband, too Many Words and Murder.

DANVILLE, Va., Feb. 9.—Jacob Modlin, who keeps a small grocery store in Neapolis, went home about 10:30 tonight and in a fit of jealousy shot and killed his wife, Jessie Jeneatte Modlin. He had accused her of infidelity, and two weeks ago bought a pistol, and showing it to his wife threatened her life. To-night when he went home they quarelled, then made up; and while eating supper the quarrel broke out afresh and Modlin fired three shots, two of which took effect under the shoulder blade. the woman died in a few minutes. Modlin was arrested, is now in jail and has confessed that he did the shooting.

A Fiat Afire.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—The fashionable flat building at 559, La Salle avenue, took fire this afternoon. Several people were seriously hurt. Augusta Castorat, maid of Mr. Leopold Proskauer, was probably fatally injured by jumping from a second story window, and Mrs. Rufus Chapin, an invalid, was injured while being carried from her apartment. The building was occupied by about forty families. Loss $25,000.

ANOTHER EXTRAVAGANCE

In the Face of the Bankrupt Treasury--Nearly Half a Million is Spent.

CLERKS WHO DON'T CLERK.

One Hundred Dollars Per Month for 300 Idle Men--The Administration Gold Bond Proposition--Regarded as "Buncombe"--Suffering from Cold.

Special to the CAUCASIAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—The administration gold bond proposition, dictated by British gold speculators, was considered to-day by the ways and means committee. No action was taken and the impression tonight is that the matter will be up on hold. The "cuckoos" on the committee, who will be out of a job after March 4th, favor the scheme. Chairman Wilson said tonight that the committee would report a resolution in line with the President's recommendation. Unless the "cuckoos" are reinforced by Monday, Wilson's expectations will not be realized.

Democrats generally regard the message as "buncombe." It is a cheap way, they say, of putting the responsibility on Congress. Some say it is effrontery and openly denounce the President.

With a bankrupt treasury staring it in the face, the House today appropriated half a million dollars for clerk hire during the vacation of Congress. Representatives are entitled, under existing law, to employ clerical assistance at $100 per month during the session of Congress. The action of the House today authorizes the employment of clerks by the year at the same compensation. It is equivalent to a gift of $100 per month to 300 idle clerks when Congress is not in session. It makes a difference of nearly half a million dollars in public expenditures. It is a big price to pay for Democratic up-ism.

Southern travel is completely blockaded. A break is possible some time tomorrow on the Southern Railway and the Seaboard Air-Line, but railroad officials say that it is only a possibility.

Among the snow-bound North Carolinians here who not only shiver with cold but complain of the financial panic, are Ed. Steele and C. L. Lindsay, of High Point; C. A. Moore, of Greensboro, and J. M. Fries, of Salem.

A thaw is expected some time tomorrow. The Potomac river is frozen from shore to shore, and following the thaw is the apprehension of a disastrous flood.

Many deaths from cold and starvation are reported in the city this afternoon. The situation is appalling.

A Movement for Erecting a $20,000 Y. M. C. A. Building.

Special Correspondence to Caucasian.

CHAPEL HILL, Feb. 8, '95.

Last fall a committee was appointed by the College Y. M. C. A. to consider the advisability of endeavoring to secure a building. It seemed best to delay action until after the Pearson meetings, which had already been arranged. So successful were these meetings in quickning the religious sentiment of the College community that such a plan now seems feasible. At the regular business meeting of the Association last Tuesday night, the committee reported in favor of beginning a canvass at once, which report was unanimously adopted.

The committee hope to raise at least $20,000 for this purpose among the students, professors and alumni. Such a building is greatly needed at this University. At present there is no place where the students can gather in a social capacity; no place where an occasional reception can be held; no place suitable for religious services, Bible classes, committee meetings or other phases of the Association work. Such a building will give dignity to the work of the Y. M. C. A. and increase its power for good many fold.

A BANKER SHOT AT

By a Man Whose Grievance Was the Refusal of the Bank to Cash Checks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 9.—William Holland, a speculator, shot at I. W. Hellman, president of the Nevada Bank, today while the latter was walking along California street, near Van Ness avenue. The shot did not take effect and the man then shot himself in the head, inflicting a wound which will probably result fatally. It is understood the shooting was caused by some grievance Holland had against Hellman because the Nevada bank had refused so cash checks for him.

Receivers Appointed.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 9.—Judge Jackson, in the U. S. court, has appointed the Hon. Wm. A. Ohley, of Charlestown, W. Va., and Robert A. D. Wilbanks, of Chicago, receivers for the Hicks Stock Car Co., of Chicago, under bonds of $30,000 each. The cause of the appointment of receivers is a suit by R. J. Whitney against the Stock Car Co. concerning patents in use.

MARION BUTLER.

THE LEGISLATURE.

It is conceded by the enemies of Co-operation themselves, that this legislature has an opportunity to make itself immortal. We want to point out again what some of this General Assembly's oportunities are:

The debtor class in this State have their necks under the iron heel of an eight per cent interest law. They have been suffering under this law for years. Their sufferings are becoming more and more intense, and their position more and more abject and pitiable, as this law, slowly but surely, eats away their substance. This law was fixed upon the people and has been continued upon them, in spite of pleas and protestations and prayers, by the Democratic party. This legislature has an opportunity to take away the burdens imposed by this law, and give to suffering debtors the inspiration of hope. Will it suffer its opportunity to pass? May a merciful God forbid!

The election law of this State was devised to disfranchise large numbers of free citizens in this State; and, for years and years, it has done just what it was enacted to do. It has done more than it was enacted to do. It has not only disfranchised large numbers of citizens, but it has debauched the public conscience to an arlarming extent. Men who stood as fair before the world as any man on earth, through winking at the operations of this Democratic engine of disfranchisement and wrong called an election law, have become so deadened to the appeals of right and justice, that they not only wink at the wrong, but come boldly out, and try to justify its fearful evil effects. This legislature has an opportunity to repeal this election law, and enact an election statute that shall be religiously fair to all citizens and to every citizen—fair to all parties and to every party. Will it let this opportunity go by? We hope not—most profoundly do we hope not!

The system of county government is as mean a piece of political machinery as ever was devised since history began her records. It was invented to keep the Democrats in power. It has kept them in power for twenty years. It has put the financial affairs of every county into the hands of an irresponsible oligarchy; and these have had their own way in disregard of all right and decency. This legislature has an opportunity to repeal this wretched system; and put in its place another system which shall restore the interests and actions of all local government to the hands of the people themselves. Will it suffer the opportunity to do this to pass? We shall see! We shall see!

The Common School law of this State has been very defective from the first; and the schools themselves, have been miserably inefficient. This legislature has an opportunity to give to every child of school age in North Carolina the privileges and benefits of a four months school each year. Will the legislature let the session go by without giving these blessings to the children of the State? We hope not!—we hope not!

These are some of the opportunities given to the legislature of 1895. If it should embrace these opportunities, and do these things, it will be entitled to live forever in the grateful memories of all good men. May God grant the legislature grace to do all these things, and to do them unselfishly and well!

The News and Observer thinks we have lost confidence in this legislature; and quotes a paragraph to support its opinion. Our contemporary is mistaken. We lost no confidence in any body. We never had any confidence in the cranks who offer all sorts of bills for the purpose of delay. And these cranks are Democrats.

ABDICATION EXTRAORDINARY.

We have been told, all along, that the "big five" had charge of this Legislature; and dictated its policy, and all its acts. We now call attention to a fact that will greatly relieve the distress of those parties who consider that the best interests of the State are not safe in the hands of the "big five."

The fact that we reveal is this: The "big five" have adicated their authority to the News & Observer. The public were definitly informed, on yesterday morning, of the fact that it was in control of the Legislature, in an able editorial in that paper. The editorial, referred to, ought to be read by all the people. They will feel better, and safer like, to know that the News & Observer is now on deck.

It is just as we have said, merit will get there every time. How good we feel, that our confidence in human things has not been misplaced.

ATTENTION GRANVILLE.

We will be very much obliged, if our correspondent upon the University question, who signed his name, "GRANVILLE," will give us his real name. We have mislaid his letter, and have forgotten his name.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN.

PEPPER SAUCE.

The News & Observer has convinced itself that it has exerted a mighty influence in directing the action of this Legislature. It has had about as much influence upon that action as the dew that falls on the planet Neptune has upon the earth.

How Mr. Cleveland hopes to secure the legislation he wishes from the next Congress does not appear. The Senate in the next Congress will have a clear free silver majority that he cannot handle.

The United States Senate has voted to have the government construct a cable from the Pacific coast to Hawaii. Does that body think government ownership of telegraphs exactly "constitutional?"

The next claim that the News and Observer will probably make is that it made the co-operationists carry the State last November!

When we read the editorial in the News & Observer about its influence in this Legislature, we just laughed! —and laughed!

The News & Observer has found its sphere at last. It is the funny paper of the entire world.

Some people think this Legislature ought not to meddle with Congress. Somebody ought to pity Congress, and tell it what to do.

The gold bugs try to fool the people by the small denomination bond dodge. But small bonds bear interest in gold, as well as large ones.

High rates of interest kill the goose to get the golden egg.

JULIAN S. CARR GIVES $10.000

To The American University at Washington. Bishop Hurst Induces Him to Make The Donation.

From the Washington Post is clipped the following:

"Hon. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, N. C., is a guest at the Arlington Col Carr is well known throughout the South, and especially in North Carolina as a philanthropist. Very few enterprises of an educational character have not been the recipients of his generosity.

Last night he had a call from Bishop Hurst, of this city, and the result of the interview was a contribution by Col. Carr of $10,000 to the American University.

This is the first contribution made by a Southern man to an educational enterprise north of the Potomac since the war. Col. Carr is one of the few millionaires of the South. He began life soon after the war with nothing but his education and energy. He has built himself up from a small beginning to one of the richest men in the South. He is president of the Durham Tobacco Company, which is world wide in its reputation, is connected with all the industrial enterprises of the State, and if signs don't fail will be North Carolina's next Governor. He is quite a young man, and the trend of politics in the old North State seems to be that the young men shall come to the front.

BE JUST AND MERCIFUL TO OUR LEGISLATURE.

EDITOR CAUCASIAN:

Will not our reform legislature be the best one which has gathered under the dome for thirty years? Be just and merciful Before they do one thing more they should give our poor country children four months schools, where town and city children have eight, nine, and ten months. They should give the poor children criminals a reformatory and try to make some amends to them for having been so long neglected. Last but not least, woe unto the man who turns his back on the old soldier. If man did not turn the man down who forgets the poor old soldier, God would. The old soldier is a contingent in the North, and false be the tongue and arm of the man who would give to any unnecessary object and not look after the living needy old soldier of the South. Men of the legislature, be just and merciful and generous, then accept the consequences.

JUSTICE.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Statements Contradictory of Matters Presented by Dr. Winston—The Constitution and the University—The University and the Head of the Public Schools—State Aid not Necessary—Facts and Figures.

MR. EDITOR: In your paper of Feb. the 3d there was a five column statement about the University. The same has since been published in pamphlet form and sent to each member of the General Assembly. The statement was not made "by authority of the University," but by Dr. G T. Winston.

In dealing with the statement, therefore, I deal, in this article, no with the "authority of the University," but with only a few, out of many, of the statements by the plausible, talented and influential, but erratic, ambitious and reckless President of our State University.

THE CONSTITUTION DOES NOT DEMAND IT.

In refering to the existence and and support of the University, Dr Winston says: "The Constitution demands it."

His only authority for this statement is a quotation from the Constitution of 1776—"All useful learning shall be duly encouraged and promoted in one or more universities."

This is not a part of our Constitution, and it has not been a part of it for about half a century.

Following Dr. Winston's plan of argument, I could say that no man, unless he possesses three hundred acres of land, can vote in the election for State senators; and that man, unless he possesses one hundred acres of land, can vote in the election for members of the House of Commons, and for each of these statements quote the Constitution of 1776. But these things have been eliminated from the Constitution for almost a half century.

OUR CONSTITUTION DOES NOT DEMAND THE EXISTENCE OR SUPPORT OF THE UNIVERSITY.

Every word that is in the Constitution about the University is in Chapter IX, Sections 6, 7, and 14, and is as follows:

"SECTION 6 The General Assembly shall have power to provide for the election of Trustees of the University of North Carolina, in whom, when chosen, shall be vested all the privileges, rights, franchises, and endowment thereof, in anywise granted to or conferred upon the Trustees of said University; and the General Assembly may (notice, it only says, may) make such provisions, laws, and regulations from time to time as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and management of said University."

There is no demand for the existence or support of the University in this section There are only three things done by this section. (1) Power is conferred on the General Assembly to elect trustees. (2) Certain privileges, rights, franchises, etc., are vested in said trustees when chosen. (3) Authority is conferred on the General Assembly in its discretion, to make, or to refuse to make, such provisions, laws and regulations as may be necessary and expedient for the maintenance and management of the University. This is all.

"SEC. 7. The General Assembly shall provide that the benefits of the University, as far as practicable, be extended to the youth of the State free of expense for tuition; also, that all the property which has heretofore accrued to the State, or shall hereafter accrue, from escheats, unclaimed dividends, or distributive shares of the estates of deceased persons, shall be appropriated to the use of the University."

SEC. 14. As soon as practicable, after the adoption of this constitution, the General Assembly shall establish and maintain, in connection with the University, a department of agriculture, of mechanics, of mining and of normal instruction."

Send a postal to Sidney M. Finger, Raleigh, and ask him to send, at the expense of the "University Publishing Company," a copy of his book—"Civil Government," and read the Constitution for yourself. We greatly need a well prepared "history of the Constitution." Who will prepare it?

THE UNIVERSITY IS NOT THE HEAD OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM.

Dr. Winston says: "The University is the head of the public school system."

The Doctor is mistaken. There is no truth and not even the shadow of truth in the statement.

It is true that the "Canby Constitution" of 1868–9 made the University the head of the public school system, but the amendments to the Constitution, submitted to the people by the General Assembly of 1872–8, and ratified by about 40,000 majority, on the first Thursday in August of 1873, completely and forever separated the University from the public school system. (See chapter 53, laws 1871–2, and chapter 86, laws 1872–3.

The University is, therefore, no more the head of the public school system, or in any way connected with it, there is the A. and M. College Raleigh; the Normal and Industrial school, Greensboro, or the A. and M. college, (colored,) Greensboro.

Like George Washington, with his little hatchet, I would take a whipping before I would tell a——.

Dr. Winston has been told, by the executive committee, of the board of trustees of the University, about the folly of this statement. His motive for making it, just at the time, is not hard to find. But the man who now says that the University is the head of the public school system in North Carolina, shows himself twenty-two years behind time, and too careless about his statements to be a safe guide for the young men of the State.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED TO STUDENTS IN OTHER COLLEGES.

Dr. Winston says: "Does the University take boys from other Colleges by giving them scholarship?

Answer. This charge is emphatically denied." The question with me in this article is not what the University does, but what Dr. Winston has done. I now charge that Dr. Winston has tried to do what he would seem to say is "emphatically denied." Out of the abundance of testimony I can here have space for only three things, viz:

1. In a publication sent out by Dr. G. T. Winston to students in other colleges, is the following: "Students, in school or out, may correspond freely with the professors in regard to any educational matters, and they will be assisted freely."

2. In another publication sent out by Dr. G. T. Winston to the students in other colleges, is the following: "A limited number of rooms, with service, are provided by the University without charge."

Tuition, room with service (a negro to wait on you) free, are thus all offered at the cost of the tax payers to students in other colleges to induce them to go to the University.

3. Omitting the name of the student and date of letter, I give the following writen by Dr. G. T. Winston, in his own hand, post marked Chapel Hill, and sent through the mail to a student at Wake Forest College, N. C.:

"UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA,
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.,
September —, 189—.

"DEAR SIR:—We will accept your certificates from Wake Forest college, and count the studies here as far as they will reach. * * * We grant help according to the inclosed. If you are needy, we will give you a scholarship. Yours truly,

G. T. WINSTON."

"he inclosed" was a printed slip about free tuition on which, in large type, was "Scholarships are available to talented young men of energy and character."

Now, as all know who have studied the questions involved, the only thing that enables Dr. Winston to offer these free scholarships to induce students in other colleges to go to the University, is the appropriation of the taxes of the people by the General Assembly for the annual support of the University. Stop the appropriations, and all the evils will adjust themselves. But continue the appropriations and, so long as Dr. Winston is president of the University, with his notions of numbers, the evils will live and grow and demand a vigorous protest on the part of the Christian colleges of the State.

4. THE UNIVERSITY NEEDS NO STATE AID.

Dr. Winston says that there are 462 students at the University this year. The University catalogue for 1893–94, page 57, says:

EXPENSES.

Every effort is made to reduce to the lowest price the necessary expenses of an education at the University. The annual charges are:

Tuition - - - - -	$60 00
Registration - - - -	10 00
Medical fee - - - -	5 00
Gymnasium fee - - - -	2 50
Library fee - - - -	4 00
Total per annum -	$81 50

If all of the 462 students, present this year, should pay these fees the annual income of the University from the fees of the students would be $37,653. But Dr. Winston says there are this year 126 free students. The report of the Executive Committee, published September 16th 1894, said there were 29 free students. But take the largest. Sixty times one hundred and twenty-six will give amount of free tuition to be $7,560. This $7,560 free tuition will give the University an annual income from tuition $30,093.

The report of the executive committee, published September 16th 1894, shows that the University had an annual income from endowment, escheats, ands rents $5,827.70. This added to the $30,093 from tuition, after taking out the tuition for 126 students, the exact number Dr. Winston says are receiving free tuition this year, and the annual income of the University is, or ought to be, $35,920.70.

The report of the executive committee, referred to above, says: "The salaries of professors, instructors, assistants and officers aggregate $31,628." The annual income as shown above, would pay, according to the report of the executive committee, all salaries and have a surplus of $4,297.70.

All this, too, could be done without one dollar from the State treasury: and, in addition, one hundred and twenty-six poor boys would have free tuition.

But the executive committee says: "It is believed that $38,565.31 is the total amount required to meet the many expenses for the year now begun." According to this statement, made September 16th, 1894, by the executive committee, and the figures of Dr. Winston made February 3rd, 1895, the University would need from the State treasury this year only $2,6 44.61.

THE UNIVERSITY CAN EXIST WITHOUT STATE AID.

Dr. Winston says: "Without State aid the University cannot exist." But this has been tested and it worked well. In Blackman's History of "Federal and State Aid to Higher Education," by the Bureau of Education, 1890, page 196, is the following about our State University: "In 1866 the General Assembly granted the sum of seven thousand dollars for the relief of the institution which, together with the sum granted in 1790, making a total of seventeen thousand dollars, the entire amount of appropriation for the support of the University from the public treasury prior to the date of 1867, during a period of eighty-eight years from the date of the charter."

The $10,000 given in 1790, referred to above, was at first a loan towards the buildings, and afterwards a donation for the same object.

From the date of the charter in 1786 to 1866 the University never had a dollar from the public treasury, except the $10,000 towards the erection of the buildings.

In "Historical Sketches of the University," published in 1889, page 57, Dr. Kemp P. Battle says: "Up to the reopening in 1875, not a dollar of annual appropriation had ever been secured from the State." The highest number of pupils ever reached before the war was in 1857–8 and 1858–9, 461 in the former year, of whom 168 were from other States, and in the latter 456, of whom 178 were from beyond our borders. They then had no help, and asked for none, from the State treasury; but now, with 462 students, "without State aid the University cannot exist."

The largest annual income the University ever had prior to 1880, in addition to tuition, was in 1836-40, and then for a short time, it reached only about $12,000.

TWO YEARS AT A TIME.

Dr. Winston says the money given by the State to higher education would, if given to the public schools, lengthen "the public school term only a day and a half." Let us see. The General Assembly meets biennially, and each session is, therefore, responsible for all the money drawn from the State Treasury for the next two years immediately following. Hence the only true way to deal with these questions is to give the full appropriation authorized by the Legislature to be drawn from the State Treasury for two years for all the various schools in higher education. I therefore give them—

To the University for 1893 and 1894 - - - -	$ 60,000
To the Normal and Industrial including a loan, for 1893 and 1894 - - - -	39,000
To the A. & M. College, Raleigh for 1893 and 1894 - - -	15,000
To eight Normal schools for 1893 and 1894 - - -	16,000
To the Colleges High school for 1893 and 1894 - -	3,000
To the the Croatan Normal school for 1893 and 1894 -	1,600
To the Geological Survey (a University annex) for 1893 and 1894 - - - -	20,000
Total - - -	$150,600

There are in North Carolina 96 counties, and about ten townships to a county, or 960 townships. The average monthly salary of a public school teacher is put at $22. Therefore for every $66 a three months' public school could be provided for the children of the State.

The amount of money given by each session of the General Assembly, out of the taxes of the people to higher education would, lacking only $9,000, give them public schools in each township in every county in North Carolina, for three months duration.

This shows something of the injustice to the children of the State. Every dollar of this $150,600 might, if the General Assembly should so enact, go to aid the six hundred thousand poor children of North Carolina in their struggles to get some little start in education. Make broad the foundation in our educational system and the academic, collegiate and university education will take care of itself.

C. DURHAM.

HAVE YOU A BOY TO SPARE?

Have you a boy to spare, my friend?
To give, or "set," or sell, or lend?
His neese still the dragon flaunts,
One hundred thousand boys he wants;
To run the factories of rum;
These mills must surely cease to grind,
Unless some fresh, new boys they find.

He is not choice; all sorts of boys,
This great red dragon, rum, devours;
The good, the bad, the rough and fine,
Your own dear boy, your neighbor's, mine
but are boys good for anyway?
Need we protect them, tell me, pray?
Of course, take care of houses, land,
The market place, the farm, the school,
The wit, the knave, the sage, the fool;

Mak laws for revenue and wealth,
For railroads, bonds, for sickness, health;
Let dogs be cared for, save the birds,
"atch o'er the fish, protect the herds;
Let no poor, dumb, unspeaking thing
Feel cruelly the lash's sting.

But then, some crank will rise and say,
'Oh! let us save the boys, I pray;"
Shut up the dramshops, stop the mills,
Prohibit that which wrecks and kills.
These cranks will turn things round and round,
They look within, without, up, down:
They'll tell you that this great machine,
That we call government, is seen
To be all wrong. They pry into
The laws, the constitution strong;
They'll search most patiently and long,
For what the highest court may say;
They quote from men long passed away;
'A par ner' they call 'Uncle Sam,'
'ith him who makes and sells the dram;
They say the "folks are subsidized;"
That "license is sin legalized;"
That "the old parties, late and soon,
Stand at the back of the saloon;
That if a parson with them votes
He helps to fatten up the bloats."

Oh! it would take me all the day
To tell what those queer cranks do say.
They teach, pray, lecture, give and vote,
Their deeds give no uncertain note;
While faithless souls decry the cost,
And sadly moan, "The cause is lost;
For round and round the wheel is sent,
In the machine called government;
The poison trickles through the stills,
They hear the crunch of murder mills;
His notice still the dragon flaunts,
One hundred thousands boys he wants."

But bending low, with listening ear,
A thrilling prophecy I hear—
Like the deep thunder, vivid glare,
Before the cyclone rends the air—
The prophecy of hurrying feet,
Forth-going this dread foe to meet!
I hear the steady tramp, tramp, tramp,
Of glorious armies breaking camp
'Cranks, are they?' Yes. Called so no more,
But soldiers, heroes to the core!

S. L. DILL, Superintendent.

A LIFE SAVER.

What it Meant to be a Surfman—Hardship and Injury His Chief Reward.

From the Woonsocket (R. I.) Reporter.

One midwinter night, in a blinding snow storm, Captain Arthur L. Nickerson, in command of the gallant little schooner Allen Green, ran out from Vineyard Sound before the northeast gale and made for the open sea. The storm was at its height when the wind shifted so suddenly that before the skipper realized his situation his ears caught the sound of the breakers booming on Point Judith's treacherous shore.

Fifteen minutes after the Allen Green struck, Captain Herbert M. Knowles' crew of hardy life savers had begun the work of rescue. Captain Nickerson, when brought ashore, was in a pitiable condition. As he later stated in his official report of the disaster (see Government Report) made to Superintendent Kimball of the Life Saving Service, "I suffered much from cramps and pains caused by the bruises I received before I went ashore, having been at the wheel fifteen hours continuously."

The life savers wrapped the brave young sailor in warm blankets and gave him Pain-Killer freely. The famous old remedy accomplished an immediate relief, and Captain Nickerson slept as peacefully as a child that night and awoke next morning in a condition to face another tempest, if necessary. He feels that the prompt use of Pain-Killer after his fearful experience rescued him from unutterable suffering and even saved his life.

Brave Captain Knowles is now assistant superintendent of the life saving district He says the life savers all use Pain-Killer, and consider it the best and most reliable "all-around" remedy they can have by them.

Captains Asa Church, of Point Judith station; Albert Church, of Narragansett Pier; Davis at Watch Hill; Saunders at Quonochontaug—and their gallant crews, endorse Captain Knowles in his unstinted praise of Pain-Killer as an invaluable remedy for emergencies encountered in daily life.

The Experiment Station has issued a bulletin announcing that steps will be taken to form a State Dairyman's Association at New Berne, N. C., during fair week. The main object of the association will be to supply our own markets with dairy products.

On the night of the 14th the Raleigh Amateur Minstrels will show our people what they can do in the line of minstrelcy. Among the local favorites in the cast are Mr. Ed. Denton, Mr. Ed. King, Mr. Sherwood Upchurch, late with Barlow Brothers and a large number of others. See that you have your tickets in time.

"She," A. Y. Pearson's big production, will appear on Wednesday Feb. 13th, at the academy of music. The romance of Rider Haggard is well known. The book is closely followed, and, although at times it is somewhat weird, yet there is a vein of comedy interwoven throughout the whole.

Death of Mrs. W. R. Crawford.

At the residence of her husband, on the Hillsboro road, near this city, Mrs. W. R. Crawford peacefully passed away yesterday morning about 2 o'clock after a lingering illness. Her death was not unexpected and the children were present at the time. Mrs. Crawford was a most estimable lady of a quiet loving disposition. She had led the life of a Christian for about thirty years. The funeral will be conducted from the First Baptist church today at 1:30 o'clock.

She leaves behind a husband, who is one of the most prominent business men of the city, seven children, by name, Mr. Charles E. Crawford, in business with his father; Mr. W. Crawford, Jr., Steward of the insane Asylum; Mr. R. E. Crawford, Steward at the Park hotel; Mrs. E. P. Edmonson, of Goldsboro; Miss Love Crawford, Miss Lula Crawford, and Miss Maie Hines Crawford. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

A Splendid Showing.

Your attention is called to the following facts from the annual statement of the Southern B. & L. Association of Knoxville Tenn., of which Raleigh is proud to be a part as the people have such a flourishing branch here in charge of Mr. C. C. McDonald. Raleigh citizens show their appreciation of this Home Association, which is the oldest in the South, and the largest in America. They have here in Raleigh over 135 members, who own $120,000,00 worth of stock. Their assets Jan. 1st, 1895, was $4,624,166 The receipts for 1894 was $1,539,-019,010 The total profit of the association from commencement of business to Jan. '95 was $1,208 883, 26. One thing what makes us have so much faith in this association, is the fact that they have turned over from the expence fund (which they could have used, but did not need) $230 500,00,0 which goes to its stockholders. An other thing is that this is no bloated Company, an association of members, to where all the profits go, most of whom are mechanics and laboring men, to whom the association lends money, to build houses and pay for same monthly, same a paying rent. Money is only loaned to members and 6 per cent interest cheerfully paying monthly.

A. F. & A. M. Resolution.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. Ray arose fo a question of personal privilege. He sent forward a copy of THE DAILY CAUCASIAN of February 9th and had the clerk read the leading editorial headed "Delay." He then spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker:—The CAUCASIAN'S editorial as to myself and other Democratic members obstructing legislation was utterly false and malicious, and any statement in that paper as to any of the Democratic members being insolent, and in some instances foulmouthed, he denounced as a slander, inspired by the father of lies. We have been hounded and pursued by that paper with a malignity unequaled in political meanness and injustice, and what for? Simply to throw the blame for what Mr. Butler himself has tried to make other people believe is the incompetency and inaction of the majority, on the Democratic members. An Indian, waylaying you in the dark, and sending his poisoned arrow to your heart, is a gentleman by the side of a man who would slander his neighbor.

The statement that the Democrats met in caucus and considered for one moment to obstruct or oppose any legislation that would be beneficial to any human being in North Carolina, I denounce as an unmitigated and mendacious falsehood. Any statement in THE CAUCASIAN or any where else that the Democratic minority in this house would consider for a moment a proposition to obstruct useful legislation of any kind is a slander. The gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Monroe, as I now remember, and others, said in that caucus that we should vote for and help perfect the county government bill and other bills spoken of, and vote for them, if they were in any respect better than our present system, and there was no a dissenting voice to what he said in that caucus. But when the editors of THE CAUCASIAN think they can silence us by cracking their whip over our heads when we ought to oppose a measure, they will find themselves very much mistaken.

I understand that most of the unjust and unkind editorials in that paper about myself were written by ex-ministers of the gospel who have abandoned the soul-saving business for one perhaps more profitable and more adapted to their nature, but in the name of God I appeal to them to carry into their new sphere that truth they tried to preach in former years.

That paper says for the majority to strangle the minority in this house. That is a brave spirit, but it is the spirit of a pirate; it is the spirit of a man who would smother you while robbing you to keep you from making an outcry. It is brave, but from such infamous bravery our fathers delivered us with their blood when they fought for the freedom of speech. It is brave, but it is the bravery of an assassin. It is brave, but not the bravery of the nineteenth century."

During the delivery of the address, Mr. Turner, of Mitchell, arose to a point of order. His point of order was that the gentleman had no right to arise to a question of personal privilege unless he was personally mentioned. If he was allowed to defend the Democratic party whenever it was assailed by a newspaper every other Democrat in the House might do the same and no time be left for the transaction of business. The chair decided that Mr. Ray could proceed.

Mr. Turner appealed from the decision of the chair. The appeal was not sustained, and Mr. Ray proceeded.

Mr. Smith, of Gates, arose to a question of personal privilege and spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker: The change made in the article read as a part of the remarks of the gentleman from Macon reflects upon the official honor and integrity of every Democratic member of this body, and therefore upon myself individually; and if the paper in which it is published demands an unequivocal denial, I do not hesitate to denounce the statement, so far as I am concerned, as a base and infamous falsehood.

Mr. Hileman asked the question, "Did not the Democratic minority, in caucus assembled, decide that they would obstruct and delay legislation by rising to questions of personal privilege, by calling for the ayes and noes and by other dilatory tactics and suggest to use the same tactics on the different committees for the same purpose?

Mr. Smith asked Mr. Hileman for his authority. Mr. Hileman replied that he considered the source of his information reliable. He had it from good authority and if the other members of the House knew of the authority they too would accept the information as the truth:

Mr. Smith continued.

"I was not present in any caucus in which any such alleged action was taken, and I have never been informed since my return that any such course had been decided upon.

"Speaking for myself and my party associates, I state that we will not obstruct what we conceive to be useful legislation; but we claim the right of opinion as to what is, and what is not, useful legislation.

The spirit of the CAUCASIAN would stifle not only the right of freedom of speech, but also the right of opinion as well.

I shall exercise my rights and endeavor to perform my duty to the people of my State and county, regardless of the slanders and criticism of the paper referred to.

Mr. French said that he would say to the gentlemen on the other side that, so far as obstructing the legislation of this body, his side of the house was only delaying their important bills to perfect them; but when they were ready, they were able to pass their measures, and they proposed to do it without any delay.

BILLS ON THEIR PASSAGE.

The house then took up the following bills and acted upon them:

House bill 49, to repeal the present charter of Elizabeth City and to re-charter the same. Mr. Peebles wanted the bill read. He said the law requiring the bill to be read the third time had not been complied with. The bill passed its third reading and on motion of Mr. Pool, was sent to the senate without engrossment.

House bill 44, to fund floating debt of the city of Wilmington, &c. This bill was ordered by both the members from New Hanover, passed its third reading and was ordered engrossed and sent to the senate.

House bill 471, to provide for registration of deeds, mortgages and trusts in Buncombe county; recommended by judiciary committee; passed second and third readings and was engrossed and sent to the senate.

58, house bill, to incorporate Intermontane Railroad; amended by giving power to construct electric light plants &c.; passed second and third readings, engrossed and sent to the senate.

134 senate, house 436, to change the name of the Pinion Detective Agency and for other purposes, changes name to North State Detective Agency, and makes Mr. Beaver chief.

Mr. Ray thought this a bad bill, and moved to refer to the judiciary; the reference was made.

124, senate, house 461, to repeal chapter 82, laws of 1892. Judiciary committee recommended its passage, passed over informally.

147, senate, 5 6 To use, to amend chapter 55, section 20 of the Code in regard to assessment for damages for public roads in Mitchell county; passed third reading and ordered to be engrossed for ratification.

—, senate bill, to amend Code; recommended by judiciary; passed over informally.

On motion of Mr. French 500 copies of the bill to equalize taxation were ordered to be printed.

Some announcements were made and the House adjourned till 10 a. m. Monday.

NOTES.

Mr. Speaks of Forsythe, should have been credited with the introduction of bill 662, relating to classified rates on railroads; also, the authorizing of M. E. Teague, ex-sheriff, to collect back taxes for the years 1891-2.

Mr. Dula desires his constituents to know that he was very active in the committee in efforts to defeat the repeal of the bird law. Mr. Dula is a Democrat, and we are glad to see that he values THE CAUCASIAN as a means through which to reach his constituents.
